ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER.

The SPEAKER. Many inquiries have been made of the Chair concerning the introduction of bills. You will remember that to-day is the last day for the introduction of bills in the House, according to your Resolution. Bills therefore, may be introduced at any time during the day up to 12.00 o'clock to-night, if necessary, by filing them with the Chief Clerk in the usual way.

SENATE MESSAGE.
TIME OF NEXT MEETING

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, March 23, 1927.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That when the Senate adjourns today it reconvene on Monday evening, March twenty-eighth, at eight o'clock; and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday evening, March twenty-eighth, at eight o'clock.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

MOTION TO AMEND.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, as to that part of the Senate resolution referring to the House of Representatives, I move that it be amended by striking "8.00 o'clock" and inserting "9.00 o'clock." Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, a certain trip has been planned by sixty or seventy members of this House and it is arranged for us to get back here at 8.30 Monday evening; if we were to meet at 8.00 o'clock we would have to abandon the trip.

Mr. ADAM. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I understand this resolution is only for next Monday evening as to meeting at 8.00 o'clock. The idea is that the Senate has a large calendar, I inquired about that. They have a large calendar and they want to get it into the hands of the printer earlier so we may be able to get our bills returned in time to work on them on Tuesday. This is only for next Monday night and is with the idea that we can get to work earlier. Mr. Speaker, would it be possible for us to convene at 8.00 o'clock, as this resolution provides—and that would permit the Senate to convene—and then we could take a recess until 8.30 in the House, provided we didn't have a quorum.

The SPEAKER. If you are asking the Chair for information the Chair replies that it is possible for the House to do anything it wishes to do.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think in explanation of the position of my colleague from Delaware, Mr. Alexander, we ought not to let the private interest of a few of us who are going to have a little trip interfere with the business of the Legislature. I therefore, want to ask Mr. Sowers if he will not withdraw his motion. I think we can depend on it that the House will take care of our interests.

Mr. SOWERS. For a number of years past it has been customary for a member of this House and a member of former Houses to have some little function at Reading. He has arranged the function for next Monday. Some seventy of us promised to attend and if we must be back at 8.00 o'clock we can not make connections. Now, I had no idea of the changing of the usual plan from 9.00 o'clock to 8.00 o'clock. A number of the boys have gone back to Philadelphia and to other places, so in fairness to them I would ask the members of this House to adopt the amendment and meet at 9.00 o'clock according to the custom.

Mr. HESS. I would like to announce to the House there is called an important meeting of the Committee on Ways and Means for 7.30 o'clock on Monday night, which may require more than thirty minutes; so I believe the amendment offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, ought to be passed and prevail.

Mr. ALEXANDER. It is just as I said a while ago. We can pass this resolution and if we do pass the resolution then the Senate can go into session. They cannot go into session unless we pass this resolution, but if we do they can then convene at eight o'clock and the House can convene at eight o'clock and recess until 8.30. That will not prevent the Senate from meeting at that time. The Senate has a very large calendar.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Alexander, has converted me I will withdraw the motion.

Mr. ADAM. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my second to the motion.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1504, entitled:

An Act permitting the sale of mortgaged real estate under a judgment upon the bond accompanying such mortgage to be made by the sheriff upon a writ of fieri facias without inquisition and without any other writ

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia Mr. Schwartz, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I yield to my colleague from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Philadelphia explain the purpose of this bill.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, the bill before you relates to judgment entered on bond and warrant accompanying mortgages. You probably are more familiar with judgment notes. A judgment note has in it a clause waiving what is known as an inquisition. About fifty per cent of the mortgages have clauses in them waiving inquisition. Throughout the Commonwealth, and particularly in Philadelphia, foreclosures have been brought by entering judgment on the bond and warrant accompanying the mortgage, and the lawyer in that particular case has assumed that the instrument contained a waiver of inquisstion, and the sale has occurred and then the title goes to a title company for title insurance. Most of the title companies in Philadelphia feel that a judgment entered on a bond and mortgage and a sale made that that judgement is a waiver of inquisition, and have insured the titles. One of the companies felt that there should be no question in the law. This bill was prepared by that company and was given to my colleague, Mr. Schwartz, to introduce, in order to cure a supposed defect and to clarify the situation. It really isn't radical, it is making sure and safe thousands of titles to real estate.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Is it not the privilege of the mortgagor to waive inquisition as he so desires?

Mr. SOWERS. In answer to the gentleman's question I would say that some of the courts have already held that when a man mortgages a property and in the mortgages uses the words, "I grant, transfer, sell and assign," that he conveys to the mortgagee his estate in the land the same as he does his deed, and that being the case he does in effect waive the inquisition, and the courts have held that the inquisition is not necessary in that case.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. That is where you are issuing a sci. fa. on the mortgage and not a fi. fa. on the bond?

Mr. SOWERS. That was the thought of some of the title officers. Notwithstanding that fact they have proceeded to issue their title policy and insure these titles. The Supreme Court recently, I would say in the last eight years, changed the practice of foreclosing in Philadelphia to a considerable extent. It seems as though most of the sheriff's sales in Philadelphia are sheriff's sales resulting not from a sci. fa. on the mortgage but result from the entering of judgment on the bond and warrant. Does that answer you?

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. As a matter of fact, is it not true that the mortgage is only a pledge of the real estate of the mortgagor, and that if the rents and profits will pay the mortgage debt within seven years, this inquisition is equitable and justified.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to answer the gentleman's question, but in order that I may discuss the matter with him, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1524 entitled

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the tenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one (Pamphlet Laws ninety-seven) entitled "An act regulating the satisfaction of mortgages where the legal presumption of the payment of the same exists from the lapse of time and no satisfaction of record appears" providing that the date of maturity of a mortgage shall for the purposes of this act be one year from the acknowledgement thereof when such mortgage fixes no date of maturity

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1556 as follows:

An Act regulating the filing of notice of injuries to person and property before commencing actions for damages agains counties cities boroughs towns townships school districts and poor districts

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That no action for damages for injury to person or property shall be maintained against any county city borough town township school district or poor district unless written notice containing a brief general description of the time place cause and nature of the injury shall within sixty days after the injury be given to the County Commissioners of the county or the Mayor City Solicitor or City Clerk of the city or the Burgess Borough Solicitor or Secretary of the Borough or Town or the President or Secretary of the Board of Commissioners of the first class township or the President or Secretary of the Board of Supervisors of the second class township school district or poor district where the injury occurred

If such notice is not filed as hereinbefore provided then any suit brought against any county city borough town township school district or poor district shall be dismissed and the person to whom such cause of action accrued shall be forever barred from further suing

Section 2 This act shall take effect on the first day of August one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven but shall not apply to causes of action accruing prior to that date

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to call your attention to the bill now being voted upon. It may have a very admirable purpose behind it but it is very drastic insofar as it changes the statute of limitations. Its provisions mean that the statute of limitations is reduced to sixty days in bringing an action against a municipality. I do not think we should have such a law in the State of Pennsylvania, and I therefore suggest that it be voted down.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Contsitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—1.

Donnell,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1553, as follows:

An Act validating actions of boards of school directors in certain cases where there was a failure to record the vote of the members of the board

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That whenever heretofore the school directors of any school district shall have taken any action performed any duty or exercised any power which by law required the affirmative vote of a majority or greater proportion of all the members of the board of school directors and which by law was required to be recorded so as to show how each member of the board voted thereon if such action or vote was actually taken or duty performed or power exercised by the board as required by law the same shall be deemed and is hereby made valid and legal to all intents and purposes notwithstanding the fact that the Secretary of the School Board or the Board did not actually record on the minutes of the board the vote showing how each member voted as required by law

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. THOMAS J. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Nothnagle, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. NOTHNAGLE. Mr. Speaker, I yield to my colleague from Delaware, Mr. Alexander.

Mr. THOMAS J. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would like the gentleman to explain the purpose of this bill.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, the Act of Assembly provides that certain roll calls shall be taken and the minutes kept of the yeas and nays in school board meetings. In this instance as in the case of one or two other instances, this was done. The minutes were kept in rough by the secretary. The secretary has since died and the minutes are lost. This bill is for the purpose of correcting that defect in those minutes. The yeas and nays were taken, and every member of the school board is willing to qualify to that extent. That is the purpose of this bill, to correct that error.

Mr. THOMAS J. BROWN. Then the real purpose is to validate an action that has already taken place?

Mr. ALEXANDER. That is correct.

Mr. THOMAS J. BROWN. I am satisfied, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, the bill in question was referred to the Committee on Judiciary Special. Mr. Alexander has stated that it only applies to Delaware County. In the consideration of the bill we found that it applied to a number of places where the same error had been committed, and that quite a number of school boards have made the same mistake, so that it is of equal value in a number of other places in this Commonwealth. We gave it very careful consideration, and it is a very meritorious measure.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman from Philadelphia is mistaken when he said that I said it applied to Chester alone. That is only one instance. I know of other instances of the same kind, but I only referred to the one in Chester in explaining the purpose of the bill.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, It is my mistake, I thought Chester was Delaware County.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1183, entitled:

An Act to amend paragraph eleven of section three of article five of an act approved the twenty-seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws five hundred sixty-eight) entitled "An act providing for the incorporation regulation and government of cities of the third class regulating nomination and election of municipal officers therin and repealing consolidating and extending existing laws in relation thereto" by providing for the construction and maintenance of gutters

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HANTZ. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Northampton, Mr. Horn, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HORN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HANTZ. Mr. Speaker, I would like the gentleman to explain the purpose of this bill.

Mr. HORN. Mr. Speaker, this bill has the support of the third class cities association. It passed the House two years ago but failed in the final hours in the Senate on account of the jam. This bill seeks to give to cities of the third class the same corporate powers and the same provisions as are given to boroughs requiring property-owners to keep in repair gutters as well as sidewalks and curbs. If a third class city should repair the street by a resolution of council they are compelled to repair the gutter prior to the improving of this street. Where payment is refused the cost cannot be collected because the cities are not authorized to do so by an act of Assembly. when cities pave at the expense of the property owners, they may pave from curb to curb. If this paving material is of asphalt they charge the property-owners so much per foot front. If the city desires to have a gutter of from fifteen to eighteen inches and require that to be laid by the property-owners, it cannot by law now be charged to the property owners. There are other circumstances relative to gutters and curbs which cannot be separated, and we cities believe that we should have the same corporate powers as the boroughs to require the inclusion of the gutters as well as the sidewalks and curbs.

Mr. HANTZ. Does not the act provide for the maintenance of gutters in cities of the third class where streets are paved?

Mr. HORN. It does provide that property owners shall be compelled to renew them, that is, in boroughs it does.

Mr. HANTZ. Mr. Speaker, to my way of thinking this bill is out of order, inasmuch as when we pave our streets the upkeep of those streets, after they are once paved, is up to the city authorities to be kept in repair. According to this act, the way I understand it, it would be up to the property-owners to keep gutters in repair. If that is the case, I hope you members will vote the bill down and let the Clarke Act take its course.

On the question, recurring.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Session 1927 127th of the General Assembly

Vol. 10. HARRISBURG, PA., MONDAY, MARCH 28, 1927. No. 30

SENATE.

MONDAY, March 28, 1927.

The Senate met at 8 o'clock P. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Arthur H. James) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. W. Hall, offered the following prayer:

O God, our Heavenly Father, we would pause at this moment and pay our respects to one who has faithfully served this body as Sergeant-at-Arms, Charles S. Salin. We pray that Thy blessing may rest upon those who are sorrowing; and we know that we voice the sentiment of every Senator here, who sympathizes with them in their great sorrow.

We thank Thee that while it may seem dark, yet it is not dark; there is a light that shines beyond the cloud that falls upon our pathway. We have all been there, when it seemed that a cloud had come into our homes on the brightest days of all the year and to have shattered our joys forever. But somehow Thou didst come very close unto us.

We pray that Thou wilt touch to-night the sorrowing heart of one who mourns the young man who has departed this life from the Treasury Department. We pray Thy blessing upon those who may be sorrowing at home,—some father, some mother, some loved one. Grant unto them the consolation of Thy love. May Thy peace abide with them.

Help us all to live better lives, purer lives and lives filled with love to Thee, our God; and when we come to know that we are about to go away we will not be afraid, for after all death is nothing,—it is nothing to die, but it is something to live. It is a tremendous responsibility to live. Help us, then, to live so that we may glorify Thee in our souls and in our bodies.

Bless this House, this body of Senators, the Governor of the State and the presiding officer. Lead us by Thy wisdom, and we do the very things that will be pleasing to Thee. And we will give Thee praise, in Thy name, forever. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, I will ask the indulgence of the Senate, and ask that the Clerk read the following letter from his Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, March 28, 1927.

Honorable George T. Weingartner, Senate of Pennsylvania,
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Dear Senator Weingartner:

You have received certain amendments to Senate Bills Nos. 543 and 544, which I understand you are willing to offer to those bills.

While these amendments modify to some extent the bills as originally introduced by you at my request, the bills, if thus amended and passed by the Legislature, will greatly improve our election laws.

As thus amended Senate Bill No. 543 would compel any judge of the Court of Common Pleas to open the ballot box of any election precinct, division or district upon the sworn petition of three qualified electors residing within the ward, if the election district be within a ward, or if it be not within a ward then three qualified electors of the election district of an adjacent or contiguous district, that they are reliably informed and believe that fraud was committed in computing the vote, or in marking the ballot in the election district in question.

It would be necessary for the petitioners to post fifty dollars cash or file a bond in the amount of two hundred dollars before their petition could be acted upon and they would forfeit the sum of fifty dollars if fraud or substantial error was not discovered upon the opening of the box.

Ballot boxes might be opened at any time within four months after the date of the election or primary at which the ballots cast therein were used.

The passage of this bill would be a distinct step forward in safe-guarding primaries and elections in Pennsylvania from fraud.

The only amendment of Senate Bill No. 544 restricting assistance to voters is one which would prevent the Record of Assisted Voters from being examined except upon written order of a common pleas judge of the county. It would be unfair to permit any one to have access to this Record for the purpose of giving publicity to the names of persons having a lawful claim to assistance in marking their ballots. This amendment would in no wise impair the efficacy of the bill.

Believing that the people of this Commonwealth demand the enactment of legislation to insure the protection of the ballot box from fraud, and being of the conviction that Senate Bills Nos. 543, 544 and 545 will, in large measure, accomplish this purpose, I urge their passage by the General Assembly. I trust that there will be no further amendments made, and that the bills will receive prompt action by both Houses.

I am assured by Mr. W. L. Mellon, Chairman of the Republican State Committee, that he is in complete accord with the views herein expressed.

Very sincerely,
JOHN S. FISHER.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I am going to vote for this bill, but I want to go on record. This puts every person who acts upon an election board under suspicion. There are five election officers,—the judge, two inspectors and two clerks; and, at a cost of $50.00, a petition can be presented to the Court to haul that election board before the Court. The minute that is done a record of it is published in the daily newspapers in whatever community it happens.

Therefore, I feel that under the present law, by which the election board has to go to work at seven o'clock in the morning and close the polls at seven o'clock at night, which is twelve hours, and then work three or four hours longer before they can compute the vote, and by which it is necessary also for them to be at the polling place at least a half-hour before the polls open, in order to take off the red tape and sealing wax, and take off the box and burn it on the street,—consisting of fifteen or sixteen hours of day's work,—and then to be put in the position,—through some elements of reprisal or some enemy of some member of that board—by the presenting to the Court of a petition by three voters from a district adjacent to this district within a period of four months, to allow that particular box, or boxes, to be opened,—I trust that my sense of feeling is not only for the election officers but is for the members of the families of the election officers. A father may serve, a brother may serve and a sister may serve; and the very minute it is published that that election board and the box that they preside over are to be brought into court, charged with fraud,—

I recognize, also, the fact that it is essential and pertinent to find some method of having perfect—and I emphasize that word "perfect"—elections held in each election district, and perfect counts made.

I feel there is a cloud that will be on the mind of every person residing in every election district in this State, when serving as an election officer, as to his or her action, his or her conduct; and should it happen to any of the families here represented, in this Senate, to-night that any error should occur, or any of their members should happen to be drafted, which often happens, from the curbstone to fill the position, and then should be condemned for the balance of his or her life,—

It is a serious problem, but if it is going to be a corrective piece of legislation, I will give it my sanction. But I prophecy to-night that election boards throughout this State will not be filled with a full quota in accordance with the law.

I charge,—and I do it with a full sense of appreciation of my position, of over thirty years of activity in politics,—no man is going to subject himself to a question of a charge of fraud. There are honest people who serve on election boards, there are honest voters who vote; and to place them in jeopardy as to their characters, I think it is a crime. But there is a wave of reform,—and what a wonderful word that is; I have listened to it all my life, and I never knew a reformer yet that was honest. They take that term as a cloak to cover themselves. They are doing it now, and they will continue to do it.

But insofar as I am presonally concerned, I want to recite, while I am on my feet, an experience in my own district, in which I have resided for over sixty years,—known as the notorious "strip" of Pittsburgh. Who coined that name I know not, but we have had names like Hardscraffle and Skunk Hollow, and every nick-name you could think of that could be conceived of by man for their localities. Therefore, in the last fifteen years, since 1912, after the great revolt of the National Convention, after Taft was nominated by the Republicans and Wilson was nominated in Baltimore by the Democrats, the Republican Party was defeated in this nation, and we had men in our city who were most active to destroy the Republican Party. They were quoted by the newspapers not only in our own city but throughout the United States. There was no further use for the emblem or the name of the Republican Party.

That was done for a purpose,—done to destroy my own party, whose history stands for an epoch in this nation such as no other party ever stood for. And then the "strip" came along,—the "strip" I will say to you is a very narrow piece of land, and it really is a strip with its residences. It runs two squares in depth, from Liberty Avenue to the Allegheny River. And I say to you that every year its population is growing less, because the manufacturing interests and the wholesale interests and the warehouse interests are taking up what was formerly the residential section.

So we are a "strip," but for fifteen years they put overseers in every one of our districts. And let me make this recital to you: One of the judges appointed by the former Governor of this State took our voters to school and educated them,— principally women; and there was no opposition made to that, it was allowable under the law. We could have put in another overseer, but we did not put him in; and, as a matter of fact, not a single one of the overseers that were there resided in the district over which they presided.

In those fifteen years the only thing they could show was the fact that certain voters asked for assistance because they were unqualified personally to vote in the primary,—not in the general election, because they were Republican and had to make only one mark—but in the primary election, when we had fifteen and twenty candidates striving with all the energy of their lives to be nominated for particular offices.

Let me paint you this picture: This fall, in September, we had nine vacancies in the common pleas courts in Allegheny County; and you can multiply that by four, and that will make thirty-six candidates,—not in alphabetical order but in the order in which they shake the dice or toss the penny in Allegheny County.

We had nine county officers, including the district attorney, prothonotary, register of wills, clerk of the court, recorder of deeds and all down the line. There were thirty-six more candidates for the voter to make his selection from. That same thing runs through the line. We have eight night-schools in our city, going continuously, with teachers who can speak six, eight or ten different languages; and every pupil, remember, is a person who has made his application for the first papers to become a citizen of this nation.

We are doing everything we can to provide for and protect and make citizens out of the aliens, who, however, will never be able in the six years, or even in sixteen years, to take a ballot of that kind up,—a sheet that size (indicating), and pick out those different candidates.

And I will make another personal reference,—and this is to an election in which the Lieutenant Governor was a candidate,—the great contest that we went through last May. There were only two officers of interest to the people of this State, and they were the officers of the United States Senator from Pennsylvania and the Governor of the State. The vote will show,—you came and analyzed it after they got through voting—either for Pinchot, Pepper or Vare,—they went to Beidleman or they went to Fisher. And then, if you look down the line, it was gradually, gradually down and down,—they did not know anything else, they could not see any further.

And therefore, the percentage of vote that elected you, Mr. Lieutenant Governor, and the Congressmen and the Members of the Legislature, were no feature to the voters of this State.

So I say I am going to vote for this bill,—not reluctantly but willingly—for the purpose of finding out if there is some way to satisfy the minds of the reformers of this State that we are trying to do something. For they think nobody is honest but themselves. And I say to you, in the main average of our people there is more honesty, more integrity and more character than there is in the Upper Ten.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, being unable to hear clearly the amendments that were presented by the Senator from Lawrence, Mr. Weingartner, I desire to interrogate him.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Lawrence, Mr. Weingartner, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, I will, with pleasure.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, will the amendments presented by the Senator from Lawrence, Mr. Weingartner, return Senate Bill No. 543 to nearly the original form as it was presented and sponsored by him?

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, in answer to the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, I will state that they will not restore it entirely to its original form,—the bill in its original form, as the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, will recall, provided for the opening of the ballot boxes through petition by voters from any part of the county. The amendment would require three petitioners who reside in the same ward in which the election district is located, if in the city; and if outside of the city, either in the ward or in an adjacent ward in the precinct.

The word "error", that was taken out of the bill by an amendment last week, is restored in the bill by this amendment.

Aside from that the bill is substantially as introduced.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, it is nearly the same, then, as when presented by the Senator from Lawrence, Mr. Weingartner, and sponsored by the Governor?

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, it is except as to the changes I have indicated.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, Governor Fisher is perfectly satisfied with this bill as amended?

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, has heard the letter from the Governor as read.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I thank the Senator from Lawrence, Mr. Weingartner.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I do not intend to discuss the merits of this bill any further than to call the attention of the members of the Senate to the fact that this bill raises the hunter's license from one dollar and twenty-five cents to two dollars each year. If it is the feeling of this body that we want to increase the tax upon our people to that extent, then we should pass this bill.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I think in considering this bill that perhaps there is another angle that it would be worth while for the Senate to look at this measure before deciding that we want it. This bill provides, as follows: "The sum of seventy-five cents from each resident hunter's license fee being the increase in fees provided by this amendment shall be used exclusively for the creation, acquisition by purchase, lease or otherwise and the maintenance of public hunting grounds and game refuges and the purchase of outstanding timber and mineral rights on the lands so acquired or the acquisition of water rights on adjoining lands whenever the board deems such acquisition desirable." It seems that in the State of Pennsylvania, with the exception of a very few acres, since 1919 there has not been any land acquired, nor since that time has there been any reforesting upon the part of the State. This charge of seventy-five cents on each license would go to acquiring larger hunting grounds; it would be to establish a better sporting ground for the people of our State, and at the same time accomplish the purpose of acquiring more lands in the State by the Commonwealth before the land is acquired by clubs and posting.

A good many people are interested in the State of Pennsylvania owning more than 1,135,000 acres today; and I say, it seems to me it is pretty near time we began to attempt to purchase this land before the price becomes any higher than it is now.

If we pay this, together with the seventy-five cents, we hope to have at least half a million dollars added to the appropriation bill, which would give us a substantial amount which will be appropriated to the Secretary of Grounds and Waters and Forests, which would give us a very substantial amount with which to purchase land.

Two years ago the Senator from Clinton, Mr. Quigley, presented a bill by means of which there would have been added one dollar for the purchase of forest land. If that bill had passed at that time, with the appropriation which we had, the encouragement would have been given to us, and Pennsylvania would have become the owner of at least half or three-quarters of a million acres of land.

If this bill is passed at this session, with this additional money which we hope to have included in the appropriation bill, you people will be surprised at the progress that will be made before 1928, when the State proposes to bond itself for twenty-five million dollars.

I have stated to this Senate before that I believe in the method of purchasing lands in a gradual way, rather than pay big prices and that is the way that it should be acquired in this State and I have not changed my mind. And I hope the Senate today, as well as the members of the House, will find sufficient reasons not to make the blunder I think we made two years ago in not passing the bill when it provided a dollar instead of seventy-five cents.

I will vote for this bill, because I want the State to have more land while we can get it, and when we will not pay ten times its real value. I need not say to the members of the Senate the experience they had in purchasing the Palisades, along the Hudson River. The price went up from ten and fifteen dollars an acre to one hundred and fifty dollars an acre. The result was, the only land that was purchased was the land purchased by contracts previously made, before the bond issue passed.

I think it is very important to the State, if we are going to acquire lands, to do it at this time, by this method and with the assistance which we hope to have otherwise.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Potter, Mr. Baldwin.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Potter, Mr. Baldwin, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President. I will.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Potter, Mr. Baldwin, if it is not a fact that the present law provides that a certain amount of the license money shall be laid away for the purpose of acquiring additional land.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, in answer to that, the Game Commission has purchased several thousand acres, from time to time, but not in as large quantities as we would have liked.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President. I desire to interrogate the Senator from Potter. Mr. Baldwin. further.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Potter, Mr. Baldwin, permit himself to be interrogated further?

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President. I would like to ask further if the people of Pennsylvania will have an opportunity to vote on a bond issue of twenty-five millions, next year, on reforestation,—in 1928?

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, not on reforestation, but a bond issue. That is the mistake we made. The bond issue is not for reforestation but for the purchase solely of waste lands, nothing more.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I would like to ask if the bond issue of twenty-five million is for acquiring waste land and reforesting?

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, it is not.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I first took opposition to this twenty-five million bond proposition, for the reason that it would cost too much in the end. The Appropriation Committee agreed to appropriate a million dollars over two years for this same purpose. Now, if I understand it, they want the hunters, the people who pay this two dollars, to now buy barren lands and reforest for commercial purposes.

I think the sportsmen of Pennsylvania have done a whole lot along the line of reforestation, and I think it is unfair now to ask the poor men, who comprise most of the hunters, to increase the hunters' license in order to purchase lands and reforest.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I think the sportsmen throughout Pennsylvania are the people, as a body, who you will find are the people in favor of the purchase of additional land, because it makes large hunting grounds, more auxiliary refuges, more planting, more game, and less posting than is done by private owners. The sportsmen, I think you will find, are the people who are benefited by this acquisition, more than any other class.

Mr. QUIGLEY. Mr. President, as sponsor of this bill, and Chairman of the Fish and Game Association, I wish to state that I have had numerous letters from sportsmen's associations throughout the State favoring this bill, and I have yet to receive one letter from a sportsmen's association against this bill. The sportsmen, as a general rule, I would say ninety per cent. of them, favor this bill, in order that they may purchase this ground for their own use.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Clinton, Mr. Quigley.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Clinton, Mr. Quigley, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. QUIGLEY. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Clinton, Mr. Quigley, if a man would not have to pay this license if he wanted to go hunting, whether he belonged to a game association or not?

Mr. QUIGLEY. Mr. President, he would.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I believe this bill is a very serious matter for the poor people in our communities, especially for our farmer's sons. In many cases there are two, three, four or five sons in a family who want to go hunting, and who have only one day in the year to go hunting; and this bill, if passed, would mean the placing of an unnecessary burden upon them.

I am told this bill would raise in the neighborhood of half a million dollars a year of additional revenue in the State of Pennsylvania. I am told also that the present revenue from the present license law amounts to approximately six hundred thousand dollars a year, and that this State is so well stocked with game that in some cases it is almost impossible for the Game Commission to spend as much money as it has. And here we are trying to get half a million dollars more. I think it is time to call a halt and to protect the people of this state and not to add this unnecessary burden upon them.

Mr. QUIGLEY. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. QUIGLEY. Mr. President, is it not true that the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, opposed the initial fee of one dollar, which is the cost of the present hunter's license?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, at the time it was passed I voted for it very cheerfully,—and that was before the Senator from Clinton, Mr. Quigley, was here.

Mr. QUIGLEY. Mr. President, I would ask the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, if it has not benefited Bucks County.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, it has benefited Bucks County very greatly; in fact, to such an extent that we have all the game we need,—and if this bill should pass there will be such a decrease in the number of hunters in Bucks County that we will have more than a hundred times more.

Mr. QUIGLEY. Mr. President, will they keep increasing?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I suppose they will,—unless you make it so expensive they cannot pay their license fees.

Mr. QUIGLEY. Mr. President, are the hunters in Bucks County, as a general rule, fighting this license fee?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I am their representative, and I am fighting it for them, whether they know it or not. I consider I have a commission from the people of my district to represent them and to use my judgment in matters of legislation affecting them, whether I get a hundred letters or no letters from them.

And the question, recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, this bill went over in order last week so that all the members of the Senate might have an opportunity to read it over and study it; and the Senator who made the request for it to go over in its order, I think, was present. He may have been a little bit derilict in his duties,—I hope not,—but the bill has been before this Senate for a long time and it ought to be passed or defeated. I have no personal interest in the bill. This bill was handed to me by the Association of District Attorneys of Pennsylvania. They met here in Harrisburg, after having met a number of times to consider this particular piece of legislation. They personally have no interest in this bill. This is not a bill in which any man who took a part in it has any personal interest, except to safeguard the lives of the people of this Commonwealth. This is what is known as the "Gun Bill" and the time is now ripe when the men who represent the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in the Senate and in the lower House shall take it upon themselves to say whether or not the lives of the human beings in Pennsylvania are worth trying to save. The only thing they have in their minds is that something must be done and done promptly by which banditry in the big cities of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh shall be stopped. This is a bill to curb banditry. This is a bill to preserve law and order. This is a bill to preserve the lives not only of ourselves, but of our children, of our neighbors, of our companions, and of the citizenship of Pennsylvania. We are on trial now. We are on trial to decide tonight whether a human life is more important than possibly a little inconvenience to the men who call themselves sportsmen.

Many of the men calling themselves sportsmen object to this bill because perchance it may take them five miles or two miles, or a half-mile away on a busy day to obtain a license. I care not if it puts the sportsmen to the trouble and difficulty of going from the City of Pittsburgh to the City of Philadelphia twice a week if it will spare the life of one person. There is nothing on this earth as dear to humanity, as near to law and order and as sacred to God Almighty as the life of a human being.

Why the sportsmen! Yes, they are sportsmen to protect the lives of female deer. Yes, they are sportsmen to protect the size of the fish that can be caught. Are you going to weigh human life with the same scale that you weigh fish and the wild beasts that roam the woods? Are the human beings not of more importance to sportsmen than the wild beasts that roam the woods or the fish that swim in the river?

This is an important measure. It means nothing to me. It means nothing to the men who advocate it. But it means much honor and glory to Pennsylvania and the life of its citizenship; and we from the big cities now appeal to the men from the interior to help us to save the lives of our people and curb banditry, if possible. Only within the last week there have been four murders in the City of Philadelphia, and they are being caused by the manner in which the violators of the law can receive these firearms. You may do what you wish with the bill, it means nothing to me, I have no personal interest except for the good it will do to the human beings of this Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, with reference to this bill, I see a provision made on page 759 with regard to the length of the barrel.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, if the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle, would ask me the height of a barrel of apples I might tell him;—I know nothing about guns.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, the reason I am asking the question is,—the hunters in the western end of the State are considerably agitated in regard to this bill on account of the length of the barrel that is provided for here. I would like to vote for the bill, but I am afraid it will interfere with the rifles and shotguns in use there.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I really cannot answer the question of the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle. It may be that some one else can answer it.

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, whether or not, in his opinion as a lawyer, this bill would violate the Constitution of the United States? I call the Senator's attention particularly to the second amendment, which says, "The right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed".

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I will answer that question by saying that, either fortunately or unfortunately, I am not a member of the Supreme Court, and that I am perfectly willing to wait until such time as the Supreme Court decides whether or not it is constitutional. They have the last guess anyhow. We simply guess according to our own pleasure on these laws. The District Attorneys of Pennsylvania, who are working on this, are familar with it, or ought to be; and they consider the act constitutional, and at the present time I am willing to take their opinion.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, if this would bar these bandits from purchasing arms in Ambler, Newark or New York?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I would say that it would not bar them from buying arms there, but if we get hold of them over here with arms in their possession, that is all that is necessary. Whether the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, knows it or not, under the present law the only crime we have is carrying concealed deadly weapons; and I can walk along the streets of Philadelphia or any place else with a gun exposed and maybe the next minute shoot down the fellow I am after, if I am so inclined—I am not very good at shooting—and as long as I carry that loaded revolver in my hand it is not a crime.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, my reason for asking that question was that I felt there might be some method that we could have to coordinate the laws of the State and deprive our merchants of the right to sell firearms. It would put them at a disadvantage. As it is now they have to make out a report in triplicate, of which they keep one copy, one goes to the District Attorney and the other goes to the Department of Public Safety,—of every person who purchases a firearms in the State of Pennsylvania. It is well known by every person that when a culprit gets broke he finds some place where he can get a loan, and therefore it falls into the hands of certain merchants to loan money.

I am not making this reference for any other reason than this, that firearms are just as conspicuously for sale today not only in Pennsylvania, but in every State in the United States,—as any other kind of merchandise. Those who are legitimate dealers under our present law have to make a record of every piece they sell. If it is the purpose to shut out our dealers in Pennsylvania and transfer that business to Jersey or Delaware or Ohio or West Virginia or Maryland or some other place, I do not know.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, in reply to the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, I wish to state I have here in my desk a bill,—and before presenting it I am waiting to see what is going to happen with this particular bill,—which will prohibit anybody from buying a firearm from another man and prohibit any pawnbroker from loaning any money on a firearm. In other words, as far as possible these firearms in Pennsylvania are going to be taken out of the market.

Insofar as reciprocal legislation is concerned, there is no question in my mind that if we pass this act eventually New Jersey and New York and the other states will do the same thing. Insofar as the protecting of the reputable manufacturers of firearms is concerned, I want to make this statement: that this little weapon of death here which I have in my hand is manufactured by the Remington Arms Company, possibly one of the most reputable high-grade, high-class manufacturers of firearms in the world. This little instrument here, I am informed, shoots a soft lead bullet. It will not have any deadly effect at a distance of more than three feet. When the revolver explodes the bullet expands and enters into the body of the person against whom it is directed. It makes no noise; and the way the detective showed it to me today, all you have to do is just to walk up alongside of a fellow you do not like, pull out the little gun and shoot it, and it blows him all to pieces. He drops dead, you walk away; and nobody knows anything about what happened. This is manufactured by one of the most prominent firearms concerns in America, the Remington Arms Company; so that, it is legitimate, high-grade merchandise they are protected in selling and manufacturing. Their work forms part and parcel of the murders by the bandits who are taking the lives of our citizens. This is an instrument of death created and manufactured in order that the person with a desire to commit murder, may do so without being heard or discovered, and it is manufactured by this particular concern. It is manufactured with malice in their hearts, with murder in their souls; and if the members of the Senate of Pennsylvania do not feel that they want to protect the lives of our citizens, let them vote against this bill. It is a matter in which I have no personal feeling except that I think I owe something to the human beings of this Commonwealth.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, permit himself to be interrogated further?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, in reading over Section 2 of this bill I find it says: "That on and after the date upon which this act takes effect every person who within the State of Pennsylvania manufactures or cause to be manufactured or who imports into the State or who keeps for sale or offers or exposes for sale or who gives, lends, leases or possesses any machine gun, automatic rifle or automatic shot-gun or riot gun or shot-gun having a barrel of less than 24 inches in length or rifle having a barrel of less than 15 inches in length shall be guilty of a felony."

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, provided he be registered.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, where is the provision for registering?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I do not know, but it is in that bill,—it is to compel registration.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, only the latter part of this refers to registration.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, this bill is not to prevent the sale of firearms; it simply compels those that own firearms to register in order that the police department may know who owns these guns; and in case of a hold-up or murder, as it ofttimes happens, they would discover a gun with a number on it and they would be able to trace that gun to its source.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I would suggest that there is nothing in this section that gives permission for me or anybody else to own a shot-gun of less than 24 inch barrel.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I think that is true.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I am afraid I, myself, would be guilty of a felony under this Act of Assembly if I voted for it.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I believe that is in the bill and the reason for it is this, it is to prevent men from having in their possession what they call a sawed-off shotgun.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, as the matter stands I have a number of protests in regard to a 26-inch barrel; and the reason that I asked the question as to the bill was, I could not find the bill when I turned to my Calendar. I find now that there has been a reduction of only two inches in the length of the barrel; and that, in my mind, is not sufficient to remedy the defect that I see in the bill, because it would prohibit any country boy hunter from possessing a shot-gun or rifle,—in the shape in which it is now.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I want to say to the members of the Senate this: That the various men connected with and backing this thing are District Attorneys of Pennsylvania, and they have said to me if this bill passes the Senate tonight and goes to the House and there are any reasonable amendments to be made to that bill in the House, they will be only too glad to go over there and take it up with the various members of the committee; and if there is any adjustment to be made, they will be only too willing and anxious to abide by whatever is fair and reasonable. But if we keep delaying this thing in the Senate much longer the session will be over and there will be no chance to pass this bill even if there is a disposition to pass it.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I would like to read to the Senate a letter that I received from the Manager of the Philadelphia Housing Association against this bill:

Hon . George Woodward,
The Senate Chamber,
Harrisburg, Pa.,
My dear Dr. Woodward:—

I want to call your attention to Senate Bill No. 897 which is an act to permit one story structures not over fifteen feet in height to be built over the required lot area on all cornor lots. This would make it possible for corner property owners to extend their buildings so as to occupy every foot of yard space. You know the present building law requires at least 144 square feet of open space in the rear or at the side of dwellings. If this bill passes we may expect an additional flood of garages and small stores throughout the city, even in our best residential areas. It was introduced in the House on February 1st.

I called the attention of Director Biles to it. He got in touch with Director Elliott and they opposed the bill. We were advised that it would not be brought out of committee in the House, but during the excitement of the Zoning hearing, our attention was distracted. The bill was brought out given third reading and final passage on March 15th. Besides Directors Biles and Elliott being opposed to the bill, Director Krusen said this morning that he is "dead set against the bill" and told me I might quote him to any one to this effect.

You may recall a similar bill was introduced in the 1925 Legislature. We were able to keep it in committee, This bill, No. 897 was last week in the Committee on Municipal Affairs in the Senate. It is contrary to our plans for zoning and would be a grave menace to Germantown and Chestnut Hill if it became a law. Not only is it to your interest to prevent its passage but anything you can do toward this end would be greatly appreciated by us all. Incidentally I might say that when a similar bill came up in 1925, the civic and business men's association, in a meeting at which delegates from forty-eight such organizations were present, they unanimously voted against it as bad legislation.

Sincerely yours,

BERNARD J. NEWMAN,
Managing Director.

In consequence of that I shall vote against it as bad legislation. I hope, therefore, the Senate will vote this bill down.

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, what is there particularly bad about this bill?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, we have had for many years in Philadelphia an ordinance requiring 144 square feet of yard space to a house. This bill would neglect that 144 feet and allow the property to be built up entirely without any open space.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate bill No. 959, entitled:

An Act making the tulip tree (Liriodendron tulipfera) the Pennsylvania State flower and tree

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I am in favor of this state tree, but I think, as I am very familiar with this tree, I ought to tell the Senate that there is only one week in the entire year that you can transplant it and it is very bad to do it, that it grows only in the southern tier of this state and if it can be grown it is a beautiful tree, but it is a fact that there is only one week about in the whole year you can transplant and you take chances when you do that.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Earnest.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Earnest, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Earnest, what a tulip tree is? Does he mean a poplar tree? If he does mean that, why does he not say so in this bill?

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, I think that the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, wants to put me up a tree. I have a letter from the State Botanist that I would like to read and put into the record, and after I have read that if it seems wise to the Senators to send this bill back for a hearing tomorrow, I do not object, but if there be no disposition to have a hearing and treat the matter properly, then we might as well vote on it and see what comes of it. I would like to read this letter to the Senate:

March 18, 1927,
Senator William H. Earnest,
State Capitol,
Harrisburg, Pa.

Dear Senator Earnest:

Pennsylvania is the only state in the United States that has not chosen a sate flower.

Many organizations and citizens of Pennsylvania are urging me, the State Botanist, to bring the matter before the Legislature now in session.

The various Botanical organizations in the state have discussed the subject for a number of years and the sentiment is pretty thoroughly crystallized and centered on the tulip tree (Liriodendron tulipifera) and its beautiful tulip-like flower as the choice for a state tree and flower.

The following organizations have decided in favor of the tulip tree:

The Pennsylvania Chapter, Wild Flower Preservation Society of America.
Botanical Society of Western Pennsylvania,
The Botanical Society of Philadelphia,
The Pennsylvania Conservation Council,
The Harrisburg Natural History Society,
Various Women's Clubs, Garden Clubs and Civic Organizations.

There are many reasons why the tulip tree and flower are appropriate and should be chosen. First, it is found wild and cultivated in every part of the state. Indeed it is quite abundant and is becoming more so because of the popularity as a forest and shade tree.

Second, its flowers, buds, fruits, and leaves are easily conventionalized for artistic use. Indeed, it is already used by a Pittsburgh firm which makes table-cloths and napkins with a tulip flower and leaf design.

Third, it is an important timber tree of the state. Its wood is used in cabinet work, interior finish, in boat building, in wooden pumps, wooden bowls, and as a substitute for Cuban cedar in the manufacture of cigar boxes.

Fourth, it is one of the most beautiful shade trees grown in Pennsylvania, and is used very much in lawns, parks, and street planting. It would be very suitable for planting along Pennsylvania's beautiful highways.

Fifth, the leaf resembles a keystone in shape. It is therefore, a fitting emblem for Pennsylvania, the arch of the thirteen original states.

Sixth, it is strictly but not exclusively a Pennsylvanian, and is one of the most ancient trees of our flora, having been in the domain of our state since Miocene geologic time. Indeed it is found in the fossil state.

Seventh, it is in bloom the latter part of May we wish to commemorate with floral emblems the brave deeds of our soldiers and sailors.

Other flowers have been proposed, most of which have some very serious objections. Among these is mountain laurel, a beatiful plant, but not found in all parts of the state. Arbutus is another, and there is no sweeter nor more beautiful flower; but it is already very scarce and if it is made the state flower, there is serious danger of its extermination in the state. Dogwood is another, but here again is a flower that is not found in the northern part of Pennsylvania. Bluets, or Quaker bonnets, also has been proposed, but it is not found in the northwestern corner of Pennsylvania. And so it goes with nearly every other plant and flower that has been proposed.

There are many letters received by the State Botanist asking what the state flower of Pennsylvania is. It is rather embarrassing to reply that no choice has ever been made and that Pennsylvania is the one and only state that has never chosen a state flower.

I, therefore, respectfully request that you present to the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania the bill that has been prepared, making the tulip tree (Liriodendron tulipifera) and its flower the state tree and flower of Pennsylvania.

Yours truly,

E. M. GRESS,
State Botanist.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator if he thinks he can change the flower into a tree?

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, this bill will make the tulip tree the state tree and flower. It has been done in one other state.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Dauphin, if he is in "Earnest" about this bill?

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, I would like to tell a story to the Senator from Bucks apropos to his joke about my name but I think I will tell him privately.

And on the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Almighty God, we thank Thee this night for the liberty which we enjoy as people in this nation, and we thank Thee that in this government of the people and by the people and for the people the representatives of the people themselves meet together and make the laws for the government of the people themselves. Grant and give unto us the ability to do that which is right and that which is just, regardless of what others may say. Help us to realize that we are personally responsible for doing our duty as we see it and not as someone else sees it. Give to us the full courage of our convictions, realizing that upon this foundation democratic government such as ours rests. Be with us this night, blessing all of the members present and those absent; guide the presiding officer in all that he does and may the work of this week have Thy blessing upon it. We ask in Thy name. Amen.

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 257.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, March 24, 1927.

To the Honorable, The House of Representatives of the

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 257, entitled "An Act authorizing recorders of deeds in counties of the fourth class to appoint a solicitor prescribing the duties of such solicitor fixing his term and providing for the fixing of his salary and the payment thereof by the county".

There is no good reason apparent for the approval of this bill. It creates a new and unnecessary charge upon the treasuries of counties of the fourth class. The recorder of deeds requires very little legal assistance in the conduct of the affairs of his office, and the likelihood of litigation involving the affairs of his office is at best only a remote possibility.

For these reasons the Bill is not approved.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, last Wednesday I introduced a bill which would provide the blind and disabled people of Pennslvania with some legal protection. I notice, according to many of the Pittsburgh papers, they have my bill changed. My bill read that the blind and the disabled people of the state of Pennsylvania would be permitted to solicit in the streets, boroughs and towns of the state of Pennsylvania until the said state would make adequate protection for them. The Pittsburgh papers printed that Dunn of Allegheny County introduced a bill prohibiting blind and disabled persons from soliciting and providing for their arrest if they violated the act. I would like the reporters of the Pittsburgh papers to correct that statement.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentlemen from Allegheny, under his question of personal privilege, will be spread upon the Journal.

MOTION TO POSTPONE BILL.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill has been on this calendar and was defeated by what we would term a "slim" house. I would say that we have raised the salaries of the mayor, we have raised the salaries of county commissioners and I don't know how many other salary raisers we have had. You take the poor fireman who is in danger at all periods and the policeman who is in danger at all times, they come along and ask for an increase in salary. The result is that they are refused. The very men who refuse their salaries come here and ask you for more money. We have a situation in Pittsburgh that the poor street sweeps along in October and November are laid off on account of no appropriations; and these very same men that come and ask you for an increase find they do not have the money to pay the poor street sweeps. We are asking you to vote on this question that affects Pittsburgh alone, to vote on the question of an increase, submitting the question whether they are entitled to more money to us. Let the people of Pittsburgh determine whether or not these men should have more money and we think they should not be refused a compensation which will give them an honest living.

Mr. DAVIDSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, last Tuesday when this bill was before the House the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, took exception to section four, claiming that if this bill passed the House and the people of Pittsburgh did not vote to give them a raise they automatically receive a raise by section four. I want to call the attention of the House to the fact that section four has to do only with the classification of employes.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Ede,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 978, entitled:

An Act to amend sections two hundred and twenty two hundred and twenty-five and two hundred and eighty-five of an act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws four hundred forty-eight) entitled "An act relating to fish and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating to fish in the inland water and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth" increasing the resident fishing license fee and making the county treasurer the agent of the Commonwealth in the collection of license fees

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is a bill which is duplicating the fee paid for fishing in the Commonwealth. It is one of the acts to deprive the boy or girl over seventeen years of age of the privilege of fishing, and making the law so onerous that if Jesus Christ and the Apostles were on earth today they would be sent to jail. We have in this state a good many farmers that have boys and girls and it is one of the recreations of the country boy to occasionally go fishing. He as a usual thing does not catch the fish which this state propagates. This bill would compel the boy to pay two dollars for going and fishing in Jones' Mill Pond for suckers or bull heads. It would make every man that is old and crippled that could not go away from home pay two dollars for the privilege of catching a sucker in the Susquehanna River. Our fishing laws have run to such an extent that they are more of a burlesque in Pennslvania than they are a reality. We have no objection to the people who wish to propagate trout to pay as much for the privilege as they wish, but when it comes to taxing the rural population for fishing in streams and ponds which in this State never has placed any fish, has no interest, and there are no fish but the native fish it is unreasonable. Under the pretext of revenue this bill is presented to you. It is a question of revenue upon every hand, for every purpose practically, and some few individually are receiving the benefits. There is still another source of revenue that has not been brought before this House which would produce a great deal of revenue and I would suggest that some of the revenue raisers here introduce a bill to require a mother to pay a tax for kissing her baby. I hope the gentlemen wont embarass me on this occasion.

Mr. Speaker, our streams are becoming polluted, and we have paid a fishing tax for several years for rectifying that nuisance. Nothing has been done worth while. If you gentlemen will go down to McCall's Ferry Dam, down the Susquehanna River, and take a look at that burlesque, or the so called fish way and inspect the dead fish that are lying below that dam, that die when the water is turned on the wheels of that power dam, that die by the thousands, good large fish, and no effort is being made to help those fish up the river, and yet if a boy goes out and takes a fish five and three quarters inches long he is lit upon and branded as a criminal and have the stigma follow during his life. I oppose this increase as carried in this bill and I hope the sane members of this House will vote it down.

On the question recurring,

Shall the pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—1.

Baldrige,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1237, entitled:

An Act to amend paragraph second of clause one of section twenty-nine of the act approved the twenty-ninth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four (Pamphlet Laws seventy-three) entitled "An act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations" as amended supplemented and extended providing that certain corporations may act as treasurers and tax collectors for municipalities school and poor districts

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Huber, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HUBER. With pleasure.

Mr. ALEXANDER. What is the purpose of this bill?

Mr. HUBER. This bill is to amend the act so as to give the banks and trust companies the right to act as collectors and receivers of taxes. In the City of Scranton about three of four years ago we had a loss up there in the school district of about $250,000.00. Now, we have two trust companies, one is acting as collector and the other as receiver of taxes.

Mr. ALEXANDER. What about your regularly elected tax collector, what becomes of him?

Mr. HUBER. We elect them as tax collector. Under the act today they cannot act as a tax collector unless this amendment is passed.

Mr. ALEXANDER. How do you mean cannot act as tax collector.

Mr. HUBER. Because the law does not allow them to act as tax collector.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Do you mean cannot act as tax collector?

Mr. HUBER. We have the trust company or the bank there appointed by the school board from our district.

Mr. ALEXANDER. In other words, it is your idea that your municipality, or your district, then will elect a corporation as a tax collector.

Mr. HUBER. We have done so, yes.

Mr. ALEXANDER. And that is in place of the regularly elected tax collector in that district?

Mr. HUBER. That is what we have done at the present time.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Then if that is the case that you have been doing that why do you want an act of assembly to cover the whole Commonwealth to satisfy the City of Scranton?

Mr. HUBER. The Banking Department said it was illegal for them to collect taxes unless this act was passed.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Was not your former tax collector bonded?

Mr. HUBER. He was bonded.

Mr. ALEXANDER. How did you come to lose so much money if he was bonded?

Mr. HUBER. Because it went back for a period of about eight or nine years.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Then it was the fault of your municipality, not a fault of the law?

Mr. HUBER. I cannot say that, no.

Mr. ALEXANDER. In other words, they left him go for eight or nine years before they called him to account.

Mr. HUBER. I will admit that, yes.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill, as I see it, provides that National Banks and trust companies may become tax collectors for municipalities, county and poor and for school districts. If they have any trouble in the city of Scranton, and this is only to apply to that city I am not objecting to it, but the trouble is this applies to all of them. It does not seem to me that a bank is the proper person to elect when you go to elect a person as tax collector for any municiaplity or county. It is strange that they cannot find somebody in the City of Scranton honest enough to act as tax collector. I know a number of people in Scranton whom I would trust with most any fund. I can see no reason for my part, why the regular tax collector should not have the collection of all these taxes.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Huber.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Huber, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HUBER. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. In this act whom do you include as corporations or companies?

Mr. HUBER. Why, the trust companies and the banks as tax collectors.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. Under this act you desire to have the collection of school taxes and poor taxes placed in the hands of these companies or corporations.

Mr. HUBER. Yes, if the school board so wishes.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. And also to act as treasurer.

Mr. HUBER. Yes sir.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. What happens to the school treasurer?

Mr. HUBER. It is up to the school districts to name whom they want as treasurer. They can have the bank as collector and they can have another treasurer, someone else can act as treasurer, but in our town we have a trust company that is treasurer and we have a trust company as tax collector. That is optional with the board.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Less than the majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the bill falls.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 218 entitled

An Act to amend section two of the act approved the twenty-eighth day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five (Pamphlet Laws four hundred and eight) entitled "A supplement to the twenty-fourth section of an act entitled 'An act to provide revenue by taxation approved the seventh day of June one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine' approved the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine amending the twenty-fourth section by providing for the payment by the State Treasurer of one-half of the two per centum tax on premiums paid by foreign fire insurance companies to the treasurers of the several cities and boroughs within this Commonwealth"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, a number of members of the House have asked me questions with reference to this bill, whether it takes away from the firemen's relief to which the two percent tax on foreign insurance companies goes; whether it takes that tax away from the firemen's relief. I want to say to the members of the House that it does not. The amendment merely provides the time when the tax will be paid, in the first place, setting it on September first. The reports made to the department must be made by March first. Under the act that sets forth a two per cent foreign tax. The department will therefore have six months within which to compile its list and send it to the Auditor General, have the warrants drawn and send them to the State Treasurer. The second amendment provides that the checks to the different treasurers may be drawn in favor of the treasurer without stating the name of such treasurer. The reason for that is this: during the past year the warrants were drawn in that manner. The State Treasurer held that the warrants must be drawn naming specifically the person who held that office. While that may be all right in a great many of the larger municipalities, in some of the smaller ones, such as some of our boroughs where the treasurers change often, it is difficult for the Auditor General's Department to secure the names of the treasurers of these municipalities, and therefore there is a great amount of delay and a great amount of confusion I feel that the State Treasurer is amply protected if he names merely the treasurer of such and such a city or borough, because the endorsement on that check would have to be guaranteed by the bank, and the bank would have to be responsible to see that the person who deposited that check would have the proper authority, therefore, this does not affect the firemen in any way. I might say to the House that the bill was introduced at the request of the firemen's association of Delaware County.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—5.

Baldrige,
Howe,
Stadtlander,
Storb,
Zak,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 314, entitled:

An Act to amend section thirty-eight of the act approved the twentieth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws five hundred and twenty-one) entitled "An act providing for the imposition and collection of certain taxes upon the transfer of property passing from a decedent who was a resident of this Commonwealth at the time of his death and of property within this Commonwealth of a decedent who was a non-resident of the Commonwealth at the time of his death and making it unlawful for any corporation of this Commonwealth or national banking association located therein to transfer the stock of such corporation or banking association standing in the name of any such decedent until the tax on the transfer thereof has been paid and providing penalties and citing certain acts for repeal" reducing the interest rate on unpaid taxes

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STORB. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Indiana, Mr. Peelor, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PEELOR. I will be interrogated, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. STORB. What is the change in the law. When a bank transfers stock in a decedent's estate now the bank must see that the tax is paid or there is a penalty for it and the bank is in for it; what does this change?

Mr. PEELOR. This bill is for the purpose of changing the rate. The rate heretofore, one year after the settlement of an estate the penalty is one percent a month, or twelve percent a year, and this reduces the penalty from twelve percent to six.

Mr. STORB. And nothing else?

Mr. PEELOR. Nothing else.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:
